

Palm Sunday Procession Route

Sunday, March 25

10:15 am – 11:00 am

Join us on Sunday, March 25 for a walk around the neighborhood! The Ecumenical Churches of Center City will process from Trinity Memorial Church, through the neighborhood to Holy Communion Lutheran Church, First Presbyterian, and end at Church of the Holy Trinity in time for the 11:00 am service.

Why do we do this?

Churches walk in procession with palms on Palm Sunday to re-enact Jesus' entry into Jerusalem the Sunday before his death. But it's not just about re-enacting, it's about using our bodies to worship God and joining in the story, not just reading about it. We don't often think of praying with our bodies, but walking in solidarity with other churches helps us to mark the celebration of this occasion. This is the beginning of the greatest week - Holy Week, where Christ gave up everything so that we might really know how much God loves us – how much we are worth to him. Join us for this special event and walk with us to Holy Week.
