Welcome! We are so glad you are with us today!

A few reminders and information for your time with us today

Masks: Masks are welcome, encouraged, and optional at this time. If you need a mask, please let us know and we will be happy to get one for you.

Children are always welcome in our worship service and we love to hear their joyful sounds and see their wiggly ways! We have books for all ages and activity bags (you can even decorate your own) in the back near the service bulletins for those who wish to stay with their families during the service. Parents, if you want a little quiet time to yourself, your children can join Madison and Laura, our wonderful Child Care Team, in the Parish House for activities. They will meet you in the Narthex and show you where to go. All children will return to the church for communion during the Peace.

During The Peace, we invite you to connect with your neighbors by waving, showing the peace sign, or using fist or elbow bumps. Please be sure your neighbor is comfortable with physical contact before shaking hands.

Offering: You can give a financial gift to the church in three ways: by placing it in the plate that we pass in church today, by texting CHT DONATE to 73256 or the QR code to the right. You can also sign up to give weekly with REALM (www.htrit.org/give).

Communion will be given in the form of bread only today. If you wish to receive communion, we invite you to go to the stanos at the front of the church. Gluten free wafers are available. We will bring communion to those who are not able to come to a standing station or would prefer to stay in their pew and keep social distance. We give the chalice to one person (or family unit) each week – sign up here, if you'd like to receive the chalice: click here, or check on our website.

More Information? Please visit our website www.htrit.org for more information about services and activities at The Church of the Holy Trinity and to sign up for the weekly E-News. If you prefer a printed version, please fill out a slip in the Narthex.

Special Text Boxes

Throughout the service leaflet, you will notice special text boxes like these. They are intended to give a brief explanation or teaching about each part of the liturgy – a little sprinkling of theology, history, fun facts, and education. We hope they will give you new insight into all that we do each week, and share with you the beauty and richness of our liturgical practices in the Episcopal Church.

We ask that you turn off or silence your Cell Phone during the service. Thank you!

THE ENTRANCE RITE

“Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and go into his courts with praise: be thankful to him, and bless his name.” Psalm 100

The service begins in gathering rituals. Led by the cross of Christ, the procession of choir and clergy represents the church gathering together from across the city into a great assembly. As the primary symbol of our faith, it is customary to reverence the Cross (a slight bow) as it passes in procession.

Following the Opening Acclamation, the Collect for Purity is a preparatory prayer for the whole assembly, simultaneously recognizing God’s power to transform and forgive us, and reminding us of our purpose for gathering: to worship God. Originally a 10th century Latin prayer, it was translated into English in 1549 by Thomas Cranmer for the first Book of Common Prayer (our book of worship). This prayer continues to be included in almost every Anglican prayer book worldwide.

Entrance Hymn 636

Opening Acclamation

Presider Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen

Collect for Purity

Presider Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

Gloria S-279

"Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth." Luke 2:14

The Gloria originated sometime before 300AD in the Eastern Church. It is known as the "Angelic Hymn" because its opening line was sung by the angels at Christ's birth. While the rest of the text is from an unknown author, by the 6th century it had become the established Hymn of Praise sung at Eucharistic celebrations throughout Western Christianity.

1. Glo - ry to God in the high - est, — — and peace to his peo - ple on earth. 2. Lord God, hea - ven - ly King, al - might - y God and Fa - ther, we wor - ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo - ry. 3. Lord Je - sus Christ, on - ly Son of the Fa - ther, Lord God, Lamb of God, 4. you take a - way the sin of the world: have mer - cy on us; 5. you are seat - ed at the right hand of the Fa - ther: re - ceive our prayer. 6. For you a - lone are the Ho - ly One, you a - lone are the Lord, 7. you a-lone are the Most High, Je - sus Christ, with the Ho - ly Spi - rit, in the glo - ry of God the Fa - ther. A - men.

Collect of the Day

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Please be seated for the readings.

THE WORD OF GOD

The pattern of hearing a story from scripture followed by a psalm or hymn is based on the ancient Jewish order of worship. The early Christians retained this liturgical pattern; first reading a story from the Torah (Old Testament/ Hebrew Scriptures) followed by a Psalm (the original hymnal of the Jewish people). In time, these readings expanded to include letters written by the apostles (Epistle), and what is known as the Gospel, which includes stories of Jesus' life, miracles, sayings, death, resurrection, and ascension. These were paired with new Christological hymns and songs.

First Lesson: Joel 2:23-32

Jeannie Welsh

Reader A reading from the prophet Joel.

O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the LORD your God;

for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain,
the early and the later rain, as before.

The threshing floors shall be full of grain,
the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.

I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten,
the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter,
my great army, which I sent against you.

You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied,
and praise the name of the LORD your God,
who has dealt wondrously with you.

And my people shall never again be put to shame.

You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is no other.

And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Then afterward
I will pour out my spirit on all flesh;
your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
your old men shall dream dreams,
and your young men shall see visions.

Even on the male and female slaves,
in those days, I will pour out my spirit.

I will show portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes. Then everyone who calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

Psalm 65 Te decet hymnus

- ¹ You are to be praised, O God, in Zion; *
to you shall vows be performed in Jerusalem.
- ² To you that hear prayer shall all flesh come, *
because of their transgressions.
- ³ Our sins are stronger than we are, *
but you will blot them out.
- ⁴ Happy are they whom you choose and draw to your courts to dwell there! *
they will be satisfied by the beauty of your house, by the holiness of your temple.
- ⁵ Awesome things will you show us in your righteousness, O God of our salvation, *
O Hope of all the ends of the earth and of the seas that are far away.
- ⁶ You make fast the mountains by your power; *
they are girded about with might.
- ⁷ You still the roaring of the seas, *
the roaring of their waves, and the clamor of the peoples.
- ⁸ Those who dwell at the ends of the earth will tremble at your marvelous signs; *
you make the dawn and the dusk to sing for joy.
- ⁹ You visit the earth and water it abundantly; you make it very plenteous; *
the river of God is full of water.
- ¹⁰ You prepare the grain, *
for so you provide for the earth.
- ¹¹ You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges; *
with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase.
- ¹² You crown the year with your goodness, *
and your paths overflow with plenty.
- ¹³ May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing, *
and the hills be clothed with joy.
- ¹⁴ May the meadows cover themselves with flocks,
and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; *
let them shout for joy and sing.

Epistle: 2 Timothy 4:6-8,16-18

James Otwell

Reader A reading from the second letter to Timothy.

I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
 People Thanks be to God.

Please stand as able.

The Sequence Hymn dates from the medieval era when long chants on the word 'Alleluia' would accompany elaborate Gospel processions. Today, we maintain the liturgical custom of singing a hymn as the cross, Gospel Book, and Presider process to the center of the nave to proclaim the words and stories of Jesus in the midst of the people. This is the pinnacle moment of the Liturgy of the Word, reminding us that Christ – God's word made flesh – came from heaven to live among us and proclaim God's word to all humanity. In some churches, the deacon proclaims the Gospel. The practice by some of making a small threefold cross over their forehead, mouth, and heart at the words "Glory to you, Lord Christ" is a devotional gesture symbolizing the desire for the Gospel to be understood with the mind, confessed on the lips, and believed in the heart.

The Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

At the conclusion of the Gospel procession, the people are seated.

The Sermon

The Rev. Rachel Wenner Gardner

After a period of silence, please stand for the Creed.

Amid theological disputes in the early church, Emperor Constantine called for an ecumenical council of bishops in 325AD between the churches in the East and West. Adopted at the Council of Nicea, the Nicene Creed is an elaborate statement of faith based on the older Apostles' Creed and officially established as church doctrine the dual nature of Christ as fully and equally human and divine. Further, this prayer speaks to the three Persons of The Trinity and clarifies the relationship between God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The Nicene Creed

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People, Form IV

Margaret Dowling

Leader Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; we pray for those who have been affected by or live in fear of gun violence. We pray for our neighbors who do not have a place to sleep and those living in deep poverty that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit, especially those on our prayer list; Mila and Brandi, David, Toro, Diana, Maggie, Jane, Gloria, Ben, David, Zakaria, Cris, Matias, Hellen, Victor & Anne, Madeline, the Lewis family, Yueh-Hua, Sina, Alvaro, Rudy, Allen, Mary Anne, Martha, Diamond, Joseph, Kathy, Lara, and Christopher. Give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader We commend to your mercy all who have died that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Presider Almighty God, by your Holy Spirit you have made us one with your saints in heaven and on earth: Grant that in our earthly pilgrimage we may always be supported by this fellowship of love and prayer, and know ourselves to be surrounded by their witness to your power and mercy. We ask this for the sake of Jesus Christ, in whom all our intercessions are acceptable through the Spirit, and who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Having prayed for the Church, the world, and our loved ones, the Confession and Absolution serves as a transition from the Liturgy of the Word to the Liturgy of the Eucharist. As we prepare to receive the holy feast at Christ's table - where all people are equal and welcome - we first publically confess those things which separate us from God and our neighbor. The Presider assures us of God's mercy and lovingkindness and the Peace is shared amongst the whole assembly as an expression of our reconciliation between God and each other.

Confession of Sin

Presider Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

You are invited to connect with your neighbors by waving, showing the peace sign, or using fist or elbow bumps. Following the Peace, the people are seated.

Prayer to Jesus

George Oldroyd

Jhesu, since Thou me made and bought,
Be Thou my love and all my thought,
And help that I may to Thee be brought,
Without Thee I may do nought.

Jhesu at Thy will
I pray that I might be,
All my heart fulfil,
with perfect love to Thee.

Jhesu, since Thou must do Thy will,
And nothing is that Thee may let,
With Thy grace my heart fulfil,
My love and my liking in Thee is set.

That I have done ill
Jhesu forgive Thou me,
And suffer me never to spill
Jhesu for pity. Amen.

At the invitation of the Celebrant, the People stand.

If the Gospel is the highpoint of the Liturgy of the Word, then the Great Thanksgiving is the highpoint of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The ancient greeting and invitation into thanksgiving, called the Sursum Corda, is sung between the Celebrant and the People which is followed by the Celebrant inviting us to join our voices with the angels and all of heaven in the singing of the Sanctus. The Celebrant continues with an elaborate and rich Eucharistic Prayer which recalls the history of salvation. Trinitarian in form, the prayer addresses the Father (creation), the Son (Jesus' saving acts and the Words of Institution), and the Holy Spirit. Here, the Celebrant stretches their hands over the bread and wine, invoking the Spirit to sanctify them, making them holy and sacred - the body and blood of Christ. This is called the Epiclesis.

The Sanctus (Latin for 'holy'), is the marriage of two scriptural verses: Isaiah's vision of heaven ("Holy, Holy, Holy Lord..." Isaiah 6:3) and the acclamation shouted by the people as Jesus entered Jerusalem ("Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna!" Matthew 21:9). For some, it is customary to bow during the singing of the "Holy, Holy, Holy..." which follows Isaiah's description that all of heaven bowed before God as they sang this hymn, then standing upright, make the sign of the cross at the words "Blessed is he...", thus connecting Christ to Isaiah's vision.

Celebrant	People
The Lord be with you.	And al - so with you.
Celebrant	People
Lift up your hearts.	We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus S-131

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Jesus Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

Throughout the pandemic, while we were unable to take communion, our community said this prayer by St. Alphonsus de Liguori (1696-1787), and continues to be said by those online or who do not wish to take communion today.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though you have already come, I embrace you and unite myself entirely to you; never permit me to be separated from you. Amen

Distribution of Communion

Communion will be given in one kind only (bread) today. If you wish to receive communion, you are invited to come to the station at the front of the church. We will bring communion to those unable to come to a standing station or those who are more comfortable staying in their pew. If you need a gluten-free wafer or prefer a blessing, please let the priest know.

Communion Hymn 398

While our service begins in gathering rituals, we end our service being sent back out into the world, refreshed, sustained, and with new purpose to live our Christian lives outside of the church walls. The Post Communion Prayer dates back to the 4th century, and was first included in the 1549 Book of Common Prayer. The Celebrant sends us off with a blessing in the name of the Trinity, and after a hymn, we are sent into the world with a dismissal, replying, "Thanks be to God!"

Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing

Celebrant The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you; the Lord turn his face toward you and give you peace; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.
